THE NEWLY COMPLETED
Widener Memorial Library, Harvard University
 IS EQUIPPED WITH
Snead Standard Stack and Snead Standard Steel Shelving

VIEW IN MAIN STACK ROOM IN COURSE OF CONSTRUCTION

Distinctive Features—Main Stack

Ten tiers high, capacity over 2,200,000 volumes. Forms structural element of building, carrying main third floor above and bracing walls.

Wide fixed bottom shelves extend over and protect ventilating desk slits, also accommodate oversize books where they will not encroach on most valuable portion of aisle space. Interchangeable regular and "Oversize" adjustable shelves permit direct classification, irrespective of size.

Alcoves along windows provide study space for over 300 students. 30 private offices for professors are built into stack.

Miscellaneous Rooms

Snead Standard Steel Shelving used in thirty-six reading rooms, work rooms, study rooms and seminar rooms forms an attractive and harmonious architectural feature.

Front edges of shelf supports are flat and square, not rounded, shelf adjusting arrangements inconspicuous; marble base; steel cornice; plate glass doors for valuable collections; dark brown enamel finish, harmonizing with the oak trim.

SUPPLYING PUBLIC LIBRARIES was one of the special features of the Putnam House when established by the founder in 1841. Particular attention has been given by the Management since then to this branch of the business and it has greatly increased. We offer facilities possessed by no other house for thorough, efficient, intelligent, and economical service. Our branch house in London gives us peculiar advantages in this connection. On our list of regular customers are numerous public and college libraries throughout the country.

Fifteen years ago the United States Naval Equipment Bureau began to place libraries on each vessel in the Navy. Every battleship and cruiser to-day has admirably selected libraries comprising general literature as well as technical books, for both officers and crew.

The contracts for supplying these libraries are awarded by strict competitive bids. It speaks well for the efficiency of our Library Department that the libraries of at least 85 per cent of the vessels come from Putnams.

We are always ready to make competitive offers for library contracts, when the conditions are such that fair competition is really practicable.

Safety First: A Book disinfecting Machine Something New for Libraries, Schools, etc.

Wm. H. Rademackers, the well known Library Binder of Newark, N. J., has for many years noted that Libraries and Schools need to safeguard employees, pupils and borrowers of Books. He has invented and patented a book disinfecting machine which enables him to disinfect, without the slightest injury, every page of a Book, after it is rebound.

Books carry disease germs. Libraries and Schools can now have their books rebound, and at the same time disinfected, without extra cost.

Thirty years of experience in all branches of Bookbinding has taught me what binding is most suitable for hard use in Libraries and Schools.

I supervise all my work, my Bindery is always open to visitors. Send me two works of Fiction, prepaid, and I will rebind same, one in cloth and one in half leather, and send them to you that you may see samples of my work.

I return all work four weeks after receiving it. Ask for price list. Give me a trial.

CHIVERS' GRADED BINDINGS (DURO-FLEXILE) ONE-TWO-THREE

All with Chivers' Sewing and Methods Used in More than 1500 Public Libraries.
Grade No. 1—Leather back (Niger or Pigskin) stout waterproof cloth sides; For new books and books of good paper and ascertained popularity.

Grade No. 2—Full Library Buckram: For partially used books, books of small size, poor paper, or doubtful popularity.

Grade No. 3—Reinforced Publishers' Bindings: These books are supplied sewed and rebound in the publishers' covers, and give an average loan issue of three times that of the original binding. Books treated in this way often serve all the loans demanded of them.

Should rebinding be advisable, a saving of 15c. is effected because the Chivers' sewing is permanent.

DEAR SIR—

We have been using several of your Keyless Lock Binders for several months and find them perfectly satisfactory. We have had no more trouble with the "Magazine Thief" and the old numbers look as good as "the new" when taken from the binders.

They improve the looks of the reading table, keep the magazine in better condition and are so reasonable in price that EVERY Association can afford them.

Yours sincerely,

General Secretary.

By Mrs. Robert W. DeForest

TOGETHER WITH "A VOYAGE TO GUI-ANA," BEING THE JOURNAL OF JESSE
DE FOREST AND HIS COLONISTS,
1623-1625.

"A valuable contribution to American annals and the history of the colonization of the West by the Huguenots. . . . Not only to the family's many present day representatives, but to all who are interested in the human side of American history will this book appeal. The two volumes are rich in maps, facsimiles and illustrations, often from unique or rare sources, and they are beautifully printed and bound."—Chicago Evening Post.

"A monument to the strength not only of one clan but of an entire pioneer race and spirit."—Independent.

"A very human story, full of intimate glimpses into the lives of active, energetic, capable, representative men and women who through the space of three centuries did their part, each in the work of his own day."—New York Times.

THE two supports of a magazine are its subscribers and its advertisers. It is the purpose of THE LIBRARY JOURNAL to print in its pages only such advertisements as will warrant the confidence of its readers, and be of positive service in supplying their various wants. It would thus perform a sound function and serve both the librarian and the advertiser.

In view of this purpose it bespeaks for its advertising pages the close attention of its readers.

THE AMERICAN BOOK TRADE MANUAL, of which this is the initial issue, is to be published from time to time, or, if demand requires, annually, as a trade tool for the book trade and as a help to all concerned in book publishing, buying, selling and collecting. It is first of all a series of up-to-date directories, covering private collectors, publishers and booksellers combined in one volume; but includes also important information regarding book matters, in part reprinted from the Annual Summary Number of The Publishers' Weekly.

It is hoped that this manual may be useful not only to the book trade but to libraries and to book collectors generally and that it may obtain the support which it will do its best to deserve.
